Always within reach, no matter where you are.
Dräger Integrity Channel. Speak up! We care.

Dräger is committed to learning from mistakes because that too is part of proper compliance. Dräger offers safe, reliable reporting options to make sure your reports end up in the right place. If you observe any potential violations of Dräger's principles of business and conduct or of applicable law, you can always turn to your manager or your contact person at Dräger. The Dräger Integrity Channel, the web-based integrity reporting system, is where anyone – whether you are a Dräger employee, customer, sales channel partner or supplier – can report suspicious activity around the clock. No matter where you are, you can access a secure postbox and communicate with the compliance experts, either anonymously or using your name.
